

“Radical Hospitality”

Luke 38-42

Byron Chung

“Share with the Lord’s people who are in need. Practice hospitality.” Romans 12:13

Radical hospitality is a form of worship.

Radical hospitality is intentional.

Radical hospitality is an expression of love.

Radical hospitality is about others.

“For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in. I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.”

Matthew

25:35-36

Radical hospitality starts with where you live.

“Those who live radical hospitality see strangers as neighbors and neighbors as family of God. They recoil at reducing a person to a category or a label. They see God’s image reflected in the eyes of every human being on earth. They see their homes not as theirs at all but as God’s gift to use for the furtherance of his Kingdom. They open doors, they seek out the underprivileged. They know that the gospel comes with a key to the home.” - Rosaria Butterfield
